From the Editor

I consider it a privilege to present to you, on behalf of the Editorial Board, the latest issue of our journal, volume 3, number 2 of the Prestige Journal of Counselling Psychology, published in September 2020. Just like the past issues, this issue is rich with quality articles in divergent areas in education. Additionally, this issue sustained the national acceptability of our journal as we have articles from institutions of higher learning from five out of the six geopolitical zones in Nigeria, including South South, South West, South East, North Central, and North West geopolitical zones. We believe that such widespread nature of the geographical locations of the authors, apart from being an indicator of our national acceptance, also provides our readers with a nourishing educational buffet to savour.

The Prestige Journal of Counselling Psychology (PJCP), which has the Prestige Journal of Education (PJE) as a sister journal, is published by a professional association called Association for the Promotion of Innovation in Education (APIE). Both peer-reviewed journals are online and are indexed by Google Scholar. The PJCP and PJE have a very robust and meticulous peer review process which has enhanced their status, in terms of high quality/standard. The Prestige Journal of Counselling Psychology is published in March and September, while the Prestige Journal of Education is published in June and December. This issue, just like all past issues, has both print and online versions. The online version can be assessed at www.openaccessglobal.com. We can be reached via prestigejournalseries@gmail.com.

To the authors whose articles were turned down, I encourage you to learn from the detailed comments of the reviewers to improve your standard of writing in subsequent outings. Lastly, my sincere appreciation goes to all the authors who sent in their articles and to the Editorial Board, consulting editors and reviewers who have made it possible for us to sustain our tradition of timely and quality publication.

Once again, welcome to volume 3 number 2 of the Prestige Journal of Counselling Psychology. Happy reading!

Prof D. I. Denga
