FROM THE DESK OF THE EDITOR IN CHIEF

We are excited to end the year 2025 with a successful publication of the volume 8 number 2 of the Prestige Journal of Education, as scheduled. As the Editor in Chief and the one that pilots the affairs of this journal, I can declare authoritatively that our landmark successes are products of team work, sacrifices and commitments on the part of the different stakeholders. May I therefore convey my appreciation to the members of the Editorial Board, the Consulting Editors, the authors and indeed every other stakeholder that has contributed to our continuous success story.

In addition to our consistency at publishing as and when due, we are thrilled that this issue of our journal, just like others before it, has a rich assortment of articles from authors from different parts of the country, including an international author who sent in an article from Kenya. We are happy that we have been able to sustain a wide geographical spread of authorship as this issue has articles from all but two of the six geopolitical zones in Nigeria. Specifically, this issue has articles from the South South, South West, North West and North Central geopolitical zones. We are always elated by such massive spread in geographical coverage because it reinforces the confidence reposed in us, while also helping us to present our readers with assorted intellectual contents to savour.

While congratulating those whose articles were found worthy to grace this issue of our journal, after a very rigorous screening and peer review process, may I encourage those whose articles could not pass our tight scrutiny, not to be disillusioned. Our peer review comments are always very detailed; we encourage such authors to learn from these comments and be able to upgrade the quality of their articles, when next they are sending. Just like all other issues of our journal, the online version of this issue can be found at <https://openaccessglobal.com>. We can be reached via prestigejournalseries@gmail.com.

We at Prestige Journal Series wish our esteemed readers a very prosperous and productive New Year 2026. Happy reading!
